

The Pathway to India's Authentic Coffee

The Origin of TTC

Trust Trading Company stands as one of India's trusted names in the green coffee trade. Our journey began in Siddapura, Coorg, nurtured by its rich coffee heritage, dedicated farmers, and a deep-rooted passion for the craft. With strong ties to the coffee-growing regions of Kodagu and North Kerala, our skilled team connects more than 4,000 growers to markets worldwide. Our fully equipped storage and manufacturing units in Kushalnagar ensure every batch is handled under optimal conditions. As a recognised leader in premium Indian green coffee exports, we meet global standards and consistently exceed partner expectations.

Our Reason for Being

We believe Indian coffee deserves more than just shelf space. It deserves recognition for its character, for its origin, and for the thousands of hands that shape it.

At Trust Trading Company, our mission is simple:
To honour the craft of coffee growers by delivering their beans to global markets with care, transparency, and consistency.

We're not just moving coffee. We're moving India's coffee identity forward.

The Long Game

We don't want to be the biggest.
We want to be the most trusted.

Our vision is a global coffee ecosystem where Indian beans set the benchmark for quality, sustainability, and fairness.

An ecosystem where every farmer we work with earns a dignified livelihood, along with respect and reward.

An ecosystem built on something we've never compromised on integrity.

Where It All Happens

We work out of four production units in Kodagu, handling up to 12 metric tons each hour. That's over 20,000 MT of coffee processed and exported every year.

We're certified by the Coffee Board of India, backed by modern infrastructure, and driven by a team that knows coffee inside out.

The Coffee

Every bean is cleaned, sorted, and processed to exact specifications with full traceability and a sharp eye on quality from farm gate to shipment.

We trade what we know best:

Robusta Cherry

Arabica Cherry

Robusta Parchment

Arabica Plantation

Where Our Coffee Travels

From South India to Saudi Arabia, Oman, Qatar, UAE, South Korea, Belgium, Turkey, Argentina and Russia; our coffee moves far. But the promise never changes; consistent quality, delivered with care.

Our Team, The Quiet Force Behind It All

Behind every batch of coffee beans are people who've spent decades mastering the industry, from processing expertise to nurturing meaningful relationships with farmers.

They know the difference between good and great. And more importantly, they know how to keep it that way until it reaches your hands.

Where the Roots Run Deeper

We don't own plantations. We work with the people who do.

We support them through fair prices, along with bonuses, training, and transparent systems that empower them to grow. Because this goes beyond exports. It's about keeping the cycle honest, healthy, and future-ready.

What Drives Us

It's not just about coffee. It's about purpose. Because behind every cup is a story, a grower, and a promise.

At the heart of everything we do are three principles:

- 1 Quality that speaks for itself
- 1 Relationships that last
- 1 A future that's sustainable

From Our Soil to Your Sip

We may process thousands of tons a year. But it always comes back to one cup. Brewed in a cafe in Moscow, or in a kitchen in Muscat.

And we take pride in knowing it started here; with Indian soil, Indian hands, and a bond of trust.

Where Clear Trade Meets Real Trust

We work with a growing network of trusted partners including independent roasters, importers, and international traders. Our client base spans diverse markets and for them we make procurement easier, communication clearer, and supply more predictable. We've earned their trust by staying consistent, responsive, and genuinely invested in helping them succeed order after order. From large-scale sourcing to custom requirements, we act like we're on your side of the table.

Trusted by the Best in Industry

Standards You Can Count On

Our certifications reflect a commitment to quality, traceability, and responsible sourcing at every stage of trade. They serve not just as compliance markers, but assurances for our partners across global markets. Whether it's origin transparency, food safety, or sustainable practices, we maintain rigorous standards to ensure consistency from farm to shipment.

Our 4C certifications emphasize our commitment to both biodiversity conservation and responsible practices. And our 100% EUDR compliance ensures that our coffee is deforestation-free and traceable.

Each certification supports a smoother, more reliable supply chain for our clients with fewer uncertainties, fewer delays, and better alignment with local regulations and buyer expectations.

Our Globally Recognised Certifications

The United Vision of TTC Family

The TTC Family extends beyond green coffee. Through our sister concerns in coffee and spices, we uphold a shared heritage, each bringing unique expertise to strengthen our presence in these timeless industries. Together, we empower farmers, ensure quality, and take India's finest produce to the world.
